Undergraduate Scholarships, Prizes, and Honors administers three scholarship programs under the direction of the Academic Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Honors, and Financial Aid (CUSHFA). Admitted students are automatically considered. There is no application process other than applying for financial aid by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Complete a FAFSA online at www.fafsa.ed.gov by March 2. All scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic merit and most also require financial need. The Financial Aid and Scholarships Office will notify you if you are eligible for any of our scholarships.

New Students
Everyone who completes the 2013-14 UC Application for Admission and Scholarships by the deadline is automatically considered for scholarships. To assure full consideration, complete the scholarship sections of the UC Admission Application. Check all Restricted Scholarship Eligibility Codes that apply to you. If no restrictive codes apply, you will be considered for unrestricted scholarships. Complete the “Release Authorizations” section of the UC Admission Application to authorize the University to release information to outside agencies.

Continuing Students
To update Restricted Scholarship Eligibility Codes you indicated on your UC Admission Application, complete a UC Berkeley Scholarship Data Sheet, which is available by contacting the Undergraduate Scholarships, Prizes, and Honors Office. For the 2013-14 academic year, submit your updated Scholarship Data Sheet by June 1, 2013.

Berkeley Undergraduate Scholarship
The Berkeley Undergraduate Scholarship is UC Berkeley's largest scholarship program for undergraduates. Each year 2,500 students receive a Berkeley Undergraduate Scholarship, funded from one or more of our 750 University and donor funds.

- Eligibility: The Berkeley Undergraduate Scholarship is awarded to new and continuing students on the basis of both academic merit and financial need. Students entering Berkeley from high school must have a 4.1 GPA. Those entering from community college must have a 3.5 GPA. Continuing students must have a 3.5 GPA for the previous fall semester. The amount of the scholarship is based on your level of financial need.

Regents’ and Chancellor’s Scholarship
The Regents’ and Chancellor’s Scholarship is the most prestigious scholarship that UC Berkeley offers to incoming undergraduates. These scholarships are made upon University entrance to freshmen entering from high school (for four years) and to advanced-standing students from California community colleges (for two years), and are based on an assessment by faculty members of the outstanding academic and personal achievements of the candidates.

- The Regents’ and Chancellor’s Scholarship meets the recipient’s full financial need as determined by the Financial Aid and Scholarships Office, up to the full cost of attendance at Berkeley. An honorarium is offered to recipients without financial need.

Cal Opportunity Scholarship Program
The Cal Opportunity Scholarship is an academic honor offered by UC Berkeley’s faculty with the goal of attracting high-achieving students from selected San Francisco Bay Area high schools who have overcome challenging socio-economic circumstances. These scholarships are made upon University entrance (for four years) and are based on an assessment by faculty members of the outstanding academic and personal achievements of the candidates.

- The Cal Opportunity Scholarship meets the recipient’s full financial need as determined by the Financial Aid and Scholarships Office, up to the in-state cost of attendance at Berkeley.
PRIZES AND HONORS

Prizes
The Prizes program at UC Berkeley is a primary forum for rewarding creative expression and scholarly achievement by Cal's finest students. Winners receive both distinction and a cash prize, which is coordinated with the winner's financial aid package. Successful, even prominent, artists and poets in our society have found that winning a prize at Berkeley was a pivotal experience in their artistic careers. Copies of the essays and poetry submissions chosen to receive prizes are archived at the Bancroft Library. More than 20 prizes are awarded each year; see the Prizes website for a complete list: students.berkeley.edu/finaid/undergraduates/types_prizes.htm

Honors at UC Berkeley are conferred upon qualified students for academic achievement or outstanding service.
